Islands & towns of middle Dalmatia

(Saturday – Saturday)

D1 SATURDAY – Trogir

We'll begin our adventure with your arrival to Trogir during the day! Our crew with the captain will warmly welcome you on board! The dinner will be served on board! Overnight in Trogir.

D2 SUNDAY – Trogir / Makarska

During the morning, we drive from Trogir in the direction of the Hvar channel between the islands of Brac and Hvar, passing a place called Bol. Famous for its pebble beach "Zlatni rat" or the Golden Horn, a natural phenomenon, on the southern coast of the island, a mile from the village of Bol with the view to the highest mountain in the Adriatic islands, Vidova Gora 780m above sea level. Lunch on board. The afternoon the ship continues to the Makarska Riviera, to its centre, the town called Makarska. From the sea you'll enjoy a enchanting view of the Biokovo mountains up to the peak of St. George (1762m). Several bars and restaurants in Makarska will make your evening interesting. Overnight in Makarska.

D3 MONDAY – Makarska / Korčula (otok Korčula)

After the breakfast the ship will sail out in direction east, around the island of Hvar (its east end) and in the afternoon you'll reach the Straight of Pelješac and the town of Korčula, supposedly the birthplace of Marco Polo. You will have lunch on board before exploring the old town of Korčula! Located on a small headland with its Venetian architecture, defensive walls and attractive pan tiled roofs Korčula evokes memories of Dubrovnik. Overnight stay in Korčula.

D4 TUESDAY – Korčula / Dubrovnik

Pelješac straight, Mljet canal and the Elafiti archipelago are on our way to Dubrovnik. Pelješac, the biggest peninsula in Dalmatia famous for its slops who gave the names to the best Croatian red wines, Dingač and Postup. Elafiti, 14 bigger and smaller islands, will head us to the island of Lokrum, prepare your cameras for marvellous view on the old city walls of Dubrovnik and the island of Lokrum. Overnight stay in Dubrovnik. The price of the entrance fee for the Island of Lokrum is not included in the price of the cruise (approx. 3 EUR per pax).

D5 WEDNESDAY – Dubrovnik / Pomena (island Mljet)

In the morning, we sail out on a cruise from Dubrovnik to Pomena, a hidden port on the idyllic island of Mljet. For many, Mljet is one of the islands "lost" in the sea, and cannot be reached easily on your own. Do not miss the opportunity to explore this island mentioned in the stories about Odyssey! Lunch on board. Take a walk and visit the two saltwater lakes, the most visited attractions on the island, or discover naturally isolated swimming spots. The island is covered in pine and oak, and the part we are visiting has been granted National Park status. Overnight stay in Pomena. The price of the entrance fee to the Mljet National Park is not included in the price of the cruise (approx. 15 EUR per pax).

Day 6 THURSDAY – Pomena/Hvar (island Hvar)

Today's journey takes you to the Town of Hvar, a well-known tourist destination. Once a center of the Venetian Republic on Dalmatian islands, during the Middle Ages when the Venetians ruled over most of the Adriatic, Hvar was a very important harbor to them. Today it is known for its cultural heritage and social life in the summer months. Discover the cathedral, Franciscan monastery, fortress, theatre, Arsenal and, a magnet for many people who like having parties, "Carpe diem", the ultimate party spot in the harbor of Hvar. After lunch on board, scout on your own. Overnight stay in Hvar.

D7 FRIDAY – Hvar/Trogir

Today we are sailing in direction of Trogir. Trogir is a town-museum in the very meaning of the word. Lovers of cultural and historical monuments, art, original architecture and nice alleys are given the opportunity in Trogir to learn about the manifold and complex heritage. The unique historical core, Radovan's portal, the art collections which have been arousing excitement among visitors and travelers for centuries offer a tourist beauty, personified in the relief of Kairos as an appropriate souvenir. Lunch on board. Overnight in Trogir.

D8 SATURDAY – Trogir

After breakfast, you get off of a ship. Have a nice flight back home!

D6 WEDNESDAY – Korčula / Pelješac Peninsula / Šipanska Luka (Island of Šipan)

Today's program brings us to Pelješac Peninsula famous for its vineyards and cellars, especially the red wines of Dingač and Postup (named after the slopes on the south side of the peninsula). On Pelješac, we will stop in Trstenik for swimming. In the late afternoon we will continue to Šipanska Luka on the island of Šipan. Lunch on board. Overnight stay in Šipanska Luka.

D7 THURSDAY – Šipanska Luka / Island of Lopud / Island of Lokrum / Dubrovnik

After breakfast we sail out to island of Lopud. We suggest a visit to the most popular sandy beach in the region – Šunj beach! After lunch, you set sail to the island of Lokrum. Lokrum is a favourite swimming destination for local people from Dubrovnik! In 1964, the island of Lokrum was declared a Managed Nature Reserve and in 1976 Special Forest Vegetation Reserve. There is a small lake called Mrtvo More (Dead Sea) on the island, which is linked to the open sea. On Lokrum Hill, there is a fortress called Fort Royal, built in the shape of a star by the French in 1806, which gives marvellous views of Dubrovnik, the seaside resort of Cavtat and the Elaphite Islands. Late in the afternoon we return to Dubrovnik. Overnight stay in Dubrovnik. The price of the entrance fee for the Island of Lokrum is not included in the price of the cruise (approx. 3 EUR per pax).
